Film

Seriously interested in film? What's the next project for the film class?

MSOA is putting together a television magazine. Most students will rotate jobs between camera, sound, lighting, monitoring, directing or hosting the show.

The magazine will be a 30-minute or 60-minute show. There will be an opportunity to interview special personalities, music, talent, news, discussions, fashion or book reviews. They can discuss teen issues or homeschool programs that worked for them.

MSOA film students who are serious about majoring in film will be taking free classes together at the Clackamas Community Center at the Old Oregon High School. The students will have the opportunity to take classes in editing, camera, lighting and working on a television set. We will have the use of professional equipment and studio.

Film is a great way to influence the world around us ... especially Christian teens influencing other teens.

The film class at MSOA will be the business part to the Magazine. It will be a time for discussion, planning and reviewing the show.

Musical

We will be performing the "Hinds Feet on High Places" musical. It is a year-long project. Students will be cast for their parts. The dance, choir and drama will play some part in the musical. It has a great message, high energy, and is lots of fun.

College Workshops

To better help our college students get their required certification, we will be offering all-day workshops. The dates for the workshops will be on the website in August.

New Art Classes

Marlene Williams is taking the computer students to a new advanced level. They will learn Graphic Design, illustrator and more. These are Friday Classes only.

Advanced Students... Master Painting

The advanced painters who have completed complex paintings will be offered the opportunity to do an 'old masters painting' learning the techniques of the old masters. The more advanced students are encouraged to bring large canvases. We are going to stretch you in more ways than one.

Pen & Ink with watercolor

Anna Harrison who has done a masterful job with Pen & Ink...plus watercolor is now offering a college level class in this medium.

Advanced Anime

Think you are good? Get ready to be stretched.

Choir

Have you got a great singing voice or have you been hoping to get some voice training? You are at the right place. Thursday Only.

New MSOA College Director

Jeannine Kutcher will make sure that no one falls through the cracks. She is going to be meeting with College students, individually, to help them select their classes. Jeannine will make sure they take the necessary classes to reach their goal. She will be a tremendous help to the college program and we are very excited to have her on board.

Summer Missions College Art Workshop

We have the opportunity to do a summer art workshop in a high-risk community. In the complex, where the workshop is being held, there have been questionable behavior, drugs and the like. There are a number of Christians who have been faithfully praying for this particular community for a revival and for the young people there. We invite our college adults who are at least 18, and who have the approval of their parents to volunteer at this workshop. Adults are welcome to volunteer as well. If you are interested please contact Evie Fishkin at evie@msoaonline.com.

Summer Camp & Workshops

The July Summer Camp is cancelled due to lack of registrations (enrollment). Instead, we are offering a youth workshop at the same time as our teen & adult workshop. Kids age 9 to 12 are welcome to enroll in the workshop. It will be mostly painting and drawing.

Workshops Schedule:

July 20th – 22nd 9:30am to 3pm

August 10th – 12th 9:30am to 3pm

Scholarships

Due to the economy, we need to be creative so that our children have the opportunity to develop their talent. Education is developing both sides of the brain. We don't want to say no due to money difficulties. MSOA is first about people. The MSOA board of Directors is meeting in July to discuss ways to raise money to enable our students to afford an excellent art education. Pray for us as we meet. Please e-mail us if you have ideas. We know that God will provide. We pray that God blesses all of you financially.

Psalms 33:22

May Your unfailing love rest upon us, O Lord, even as we put our hope in You.
